

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Late foreign news appears in this issue.

The band will give a concert at Emma Square this evening.

Letters for "C. P." and "J. S." are being held at this office.

A special meeting of Royal Arch Chapter will be held this evening.

The Pacific Hardware Company will hold a quarterly meeting today.

A native man in a brake collided with one of the palace cars yesterday.

A Portuguese fell off a horse yesterday and was quite badly injured.

Mrs. George McIntyre died Saturday evening and was buried yesterday.

Charles L. Carter will address the second district club at Annexation hall tomorrow night.

The registration at Kohala has amounted to one hundred and fifty, and at Honokaa to eighty-one.

Mrs. M. C. Leavitt of W. C. T. U. fame was to address a mass meeting on the 15th inst. in San Francisco.

The Holomua's account of the fight between Ben Gallagher and Bert Peterson was unique, to say the least.

Purser Charles Kibling of the Claudine has the thanks of the ADVERTISER for a late San Francisco paper.

Dr. and Mrs. McGrew will give a musicale this evening in honor of ex-Governor Wells, who intends leaving soon.

The case against Ben Gallagher will be called this morning in the District Court. Standing room will be at a premium.

Officer Logan has been exonerated, after a complete investigation, for breaking the arm and leg of a prisoner a few days ago.

The strong drama, "The Galley Slave," will be presented at the Opera House tomorrow night by the Dailey Stock Company.

Jas. F. Morgan will hold an auction sale of furniture at 10 o'clock this morning, at the residence of Mrs. Burnheimer, on Fort street.

The Honolulu Cricket Club does not seem to be "in it" with the Champions. The latter won again on Saturday, by a score of fifty-eight to thirty-seven.

The Executive Committee of the Woman's Board, together with the chairmen of the various kindergarten committees, will meet at the Central Union Church at 10 o'clock this morning.

Ten men from Captain Ziegler's Company won the shooting match on Saturday, and are the proud possessors of the prize, a portrait of President Dole. The winning score was 375.

N. S. Sachs has just opened a lot of new goods, prominent among which are linen and cotton duck (the latest for dresses), undressed white-kid gloves, a lot of new capes, and new passementerie trimmings.

Jack Nolting, better known as "Happy Jack," the drummer in the Government Band, left for San Francisco on the Australia. Jack had many friends in town, and he will be missed. He was one of the best drummers who has ever been here.

Public Concert.

The Hawaiian Band, under the leadership of Professor Berger, will give a public concert this (Monday), evening at 7:30 o'clock, at Emma Square. Following is the programme:

- PART I.
1. March—"Life Guards".....Hilbus
 2. Overture—"Esmeralda".....Herman
 3. Fantasia—"Story City".....Fereira

A Treat Promised.

When Prof. Alexander was in Washington he secured some original documents in relation to the Russian occupation of these Islands. He has prepared a paper on this subject, which will be read before the Historical Society next Thursday evening. A general attendance of the members is desired, and all interested in hearing the paper will be cordially welcomed.

TWO BIG HOUSES.

The Opera House Crowded Both Afternoon and Evening.

The Opera House was filled almost to overflowing Saturday afternoon, the greater part of the audience being children, who were greatly delighted with the pranks of "Peck's Bad Boy." There were 700 people in the house, which is the largest number that ever attended a Honolulu matinee.

Another large house was present in the evening to see "The Shadows of a Great City." The play was well given and thoroughly enjoyed. The cast was as follows:

Tom Cooper.....Darrell Vinton
George Benson.....Mortimer Snow
Abe Nathans.....W. R. Dailey
Jim Farren.....Chas. Connors
Mr. Arkwright.....Edwin Lloyd
Charley Crench.....Wm. Bennett
Joe Hammond.....John Howard
Briggs
Boy (with song).....Josephine Gassman
Helen Standish.....May Nannary
Biddy Ronan.....Mrs. F. M. Bates
Mrs. Higgins.....Genevieve Nannary
